

Jennifer Nara, D.O.
SENIOR CONSULTANT

jnara@engsys.com

Dr. Jennifer Nara specializes in forensic pathology. Her experience includes both criminal and civil litigation and testimony. She is one of only 500 board certified Forensic Pathologists in the country.

Dr. Nara has over 16 years of experience and has performed over 4,300 autopsies as a forensic pathologist. Her expertise comes with her compassion and professionalism toward the families and clients she serves. Her experiences include numerous trial and deposition testimony. As a medical examiner for local government, she has interacted with various law enforcement agencies, prosecution and defense attorneys, clinical teams who treated deceased patients, and assisted families obtain answers for their deceased loved ones.

During her tenure in Florida, she had two high profile cases, the Todt family murders and Nicole Montalvo murder, where her detail-oriented work and testimony was critical to achieving justice for the victims in these cases.

She is a Clinical Assistant Professor for Washington State University School of Medicine and Clinical Instructor for the University of Washington Department of Laboratory Medicine and Pathology where she teaches medical students and interns about forensic pathology and medicine. Students and interns would observe and assist in autopsies as well as attend crime scenes and observe Dr. Nara in court testimony.
